SPIRITUAL ADVISOR'S CORNER... Deacon Jim Hayes, Spiritual Advisor, (605)-745-3757, deaconjim@goldenwest.net

As we move into November let us be thankful for our Catholic faith and pray the Rosary every day showing our thankfulness for Jesus Christ giving us His Church and reassuring us that the gates of Hell will not prevail against His Church. However, we must be careful to not be deceived by the "Evil One" and get sucked into his smooth and cunning traps he sets for us. Satan does not care so much about the other religions as his goal is to take down the Catholic Church because it is Jesus Christ's Church and if the evil one can get Jesus' Church he will win as the others will fall with much ease.

We must remember that Satan will not come after us with immense forces as he and his minions are very clever and most likely he will go through a clever preacher. I was watching the preacher David Jeramiah for several Sundays in a row before I left for Mass, and I commented to my wife how I thought he was remarkably close to being Catholic. Then on one Sunday his preaching was very uncatholic as he tried to slip in some very wrong teachings and out of nowhere there was Satan smooth as could be. So smooth that if you were not paying attention the evil one could have hooked you.

People are afraid to get into conversations about being involved in the apologetics of the Catholic Church, but the Catholic Church is like a lion locked in a cage – all you need to do is open the cage and let the lion out. I recommend you read the book "Blue Collar Apologetics" by John Martignoni. How to explain and defend Catholic teaching using common sense, simple logic, and the Bible. God bless you, Deacon Jim Hayes.

As most of you know, the men's weekend was postponed until this coming spring. We hope to have weekend dates out soon, in the meantime, sponsors are encouraged to keep encouraging candidates to attend.

The Women's weekend went very well! Thank you to the Rollo room team (Laypersons and Ordained). A big thank you to Robert Dyczek who did a masterful job coordinating kitchen meals. Special thank you to all who donated time and food for the weekend. "4th day" participation was appreciated by all in attendance during; the "Meeting place", the Holy hour and Mananitas, and Clausura. Hearing the witness of those who were changed, over the weekend, was encouraging. We look forward to seeing you at the Grand Ultreya Nov.14th. De Colores, Daniel

Greetings from the acting chair of Postcursillo,

This position is open and is responsible for assisting the movement with activities after our weekends have completed. Helping assist with organizing Ultreyas, post weekend sponsor activities, etc. This is not done alone; others are here to help on a committee - many hands help to lighten the load. If you have an interest in helping in a leadership position, please let one of the Secretariat members know and we will get you more information.

Thank you to all the sponsors for the most recent weekends. What a wonderful group of new Cursillistas we have and it will be exciting to watch our group continue to help our Diocese in the New Evangelization. Authentic friendships will grow and bringing others to Christ is such an amazing mission for us all.

DeColores, Robert
